Income Protection That's Right for You

Protect your most important asset: your income

When you think about it, your income is what you rely on to finance your life. But, what would happen if you were too injured or sick to work? How would that affect your lifestyle?

There is an insurance product that can alleviate that worry by protecting your paycheck. It's called individual disability insurance.

Just like insurance for your home or your car, you can get insurance that goes to work when you can't by replacing a portion of your income if a disabling injury or sickness prevents you from working.

With Platinum Advantage from The Standard, you can have peace of mind knowing that your finances are secure and your lifestyle is protected.

Protect Yourself Against Coverage Gaps

You may think you have adequate protection from other income sources, like long term disability insurance or personal savings, if you were unable to work. But when your paycheck stops, there is often a coverage gap.

Individual disability insurance can:

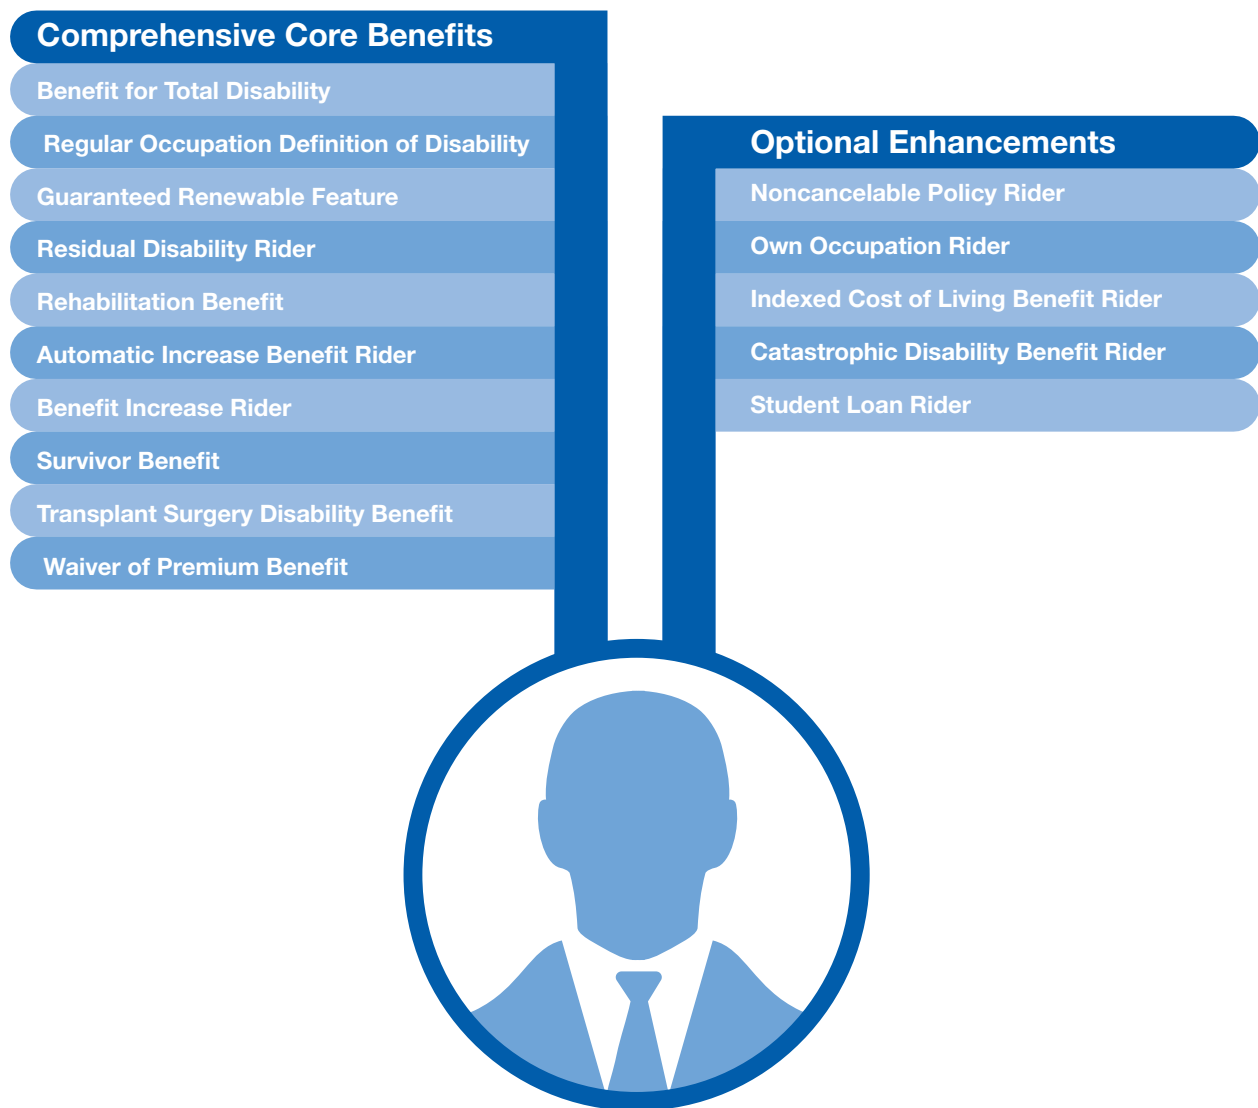

- Cover a larger portion of your salary than long term disability insurance
- Provide you with tax-free benefits if you pay the premiums, and even
- Protect additional income sources such as incentives, commissions and bonuses

And, it will help you avoid tapping into your savings to pay for your day-to-day expenses or fund your lifestyle.

Coverage to Fit Your Needs

Everyone has unique financial goals and priorities. That's why you need income protection coverage that meets your specific situation. Platinum Advantage includes strong core benefits that can help protect your income in case you're unable to work due to an injury and sickness. And, to make it even more personal, you can tailor your coverage through the addition of enhancements to match your occupation, life stage and budget.

Benefit for Total Disability

You can receive a monthly benefit if you become totally disabled, as long as you aren't working in another occupation.

Regular Occupation Definition of Disability

Platinum Advantage provides protection for total disability in your regular occupation. This means you can receive a monthly benefit if, due to an injury or sickness, you're unable to perform with reasonable continuity the substantial and material acts necessary to perform the occupation you're working in at the time a disability begins. The benefit is paid as long as you're not working in another occupation and are receiving regular medical care from one or more physicians for your injury or sickness.

Guaranteed Renewable Feature

After choosing Platinum Advantage, you won't have to worry that your coverage amounts or benefits will change after your policy is issued. Our Guaranteed Renewable feature ensures your policy won't change — no matter how long you own it — as long as your premium is paid on time.

Residual Disability Rider

If you were to experience a disabling medical condition and an income loss of at least 20%, yet be able to work in some capacity, you may be eligible for residual disability benefits. Based on your profession and income level, your policy will include one of the below riders to help you replace your lost income.

- The Enhanced Residual Disability Rider allows you to satisfy the elimination period if you have a loss of time or duties or income. After the elimination period, you will be eligible for a benefit if you have a loss of income of at least 20%. This rider pays a minimum of 50% of the monthly benefit for the first 12 months. After 12 months, the benefit amount is proportional to your loss of income.
- The Basic Residual Disability Rider pays benefits based on a loss of income of at least 20% and a loss of either time or duties. This rider pays a minimum of 50% of the monthly benefit for the first six months. After six months, the benefit amount is proportional to your loss of income.
- The Short-Term Residual Disability Rider pays benefits if you have a loss of income of at least 20% and you are receiving regular medical care from one or more physicians for your injury or sickness. This rider pays a 50% benefit for a maximum of six months.

Rehabilitation Benefit

After experiencing an injury or sickness, you might want to seek additional assistance to help you recover and return to work. Platinum Advantage provides an opportunity for you to participate in a rehabilitation program to help prepare you for return to full-time work. This may include costs of modifications to your workplace, vehicle or home; training or educational programs; family care; or other job-related expenses.¹

Jody's Story: Supportive Office Equipment

Age: 42 • Occupation: accountant • Married, no children

Assistance on the road to recovery through a rehabilitation program

Jody's role as an accountant at a small firm requires a lot of computer work. After sustaining a serious back injury from a car accident, Jody was totally disabled under her Platinum Advantage policy. Jody's doctor recommended she purchase assistive equipment to help her work comfortably at her desk without aggravating her condition. She was able to return to work full time after participating in a rehabilitation program in which expenses for a sit-stand desk and other ergonomic accommodations were paid for under her Platinum Advantage policy. These modifications helped ensure she could return to work safely, without hindering her recovery.

¹ The Standard must agree to the terms and objectives of the rehabilitation program and determine it meets mutually agreed-upon objectives. Participating in a voluntary rehabilitation program is optional.

Automatic Increase Benefit Rider²

We help ensure your coverage keeps up with annual salary increases through our Automatic Increase Benefit Rider. The rider provides basic monthly benefit increases of 4% each year for six consecutive years. After six years, you may apply to renew the automatic increases for another six-year period.

Benefit Increase Rider²

As you grow in your career, Platinum Advantage allows you to increase your coverage without undergoing additional medical underwriting. Our Benefit Increase Rider provides you with the option to purchase additional coverage once every three years on your policy anniversary to align with any promotions or income increases. You also can apply for an accelerated increase prior to your third policy anniversary if your earnings are increased by at least 30% or you are no longer eligible for group long term disability insurance.

David's Story: Starting a Medical Career

Age: 33 • Occupation: dermatology physician • Single, no children

Benefits that match career growth through the Benefit Increase Rider

David is completing his dermatology residency and just accepted an offer at a private practice. Before the end of his residency, he purchased a Platinum Advantage policy that included the Benefit Increase Rider, knowing his income will rise significantly after he starts his first post-residency job. The benefit also will allow his policy to grow with him as he progresses in his career and receives additional salary increases. David values the fact that his coverage going forward will match his developing career.

Survivor Benefit

If you were to pass away while receiving disability benefits, a survivor will receive a survivor benefit equal to three times your policy's basic monthly benefit.

Transplant Surgery Disability Benefit

If you were to have surgery to transplant part of your body to someone else and become disabled as a result, you would be eligible to receive disability benefits as long as the surgery occurred after the policy's effective date.

Waiver of Premium Benefit

Your premiums will be waived while disability benefits are payable under the policy.

Optional Riders Enhance Coverage

Everyone’s financial situation is unique. While Platinum Advantage’s base coverage provides robust income protection, you may have more specialized needs due to your occupation or income. Platinum Advantage comes with numerous flexible enhancements that allow you to tailor your policy to fit your profession, income and current stage of life. The following options can be added to your policy to help you meet your financial goals.

Own Occupation Rider

For those in specialized professions, Platinum Advantage can include a definition of total disability that provides you with more flexibility. The definition of total disability in the Own Occupation Rider provides the policy’s full basic monthly benefit to you if you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the substantial and material acts necessary to perform your regular occupation, in the usual and customary way, even if you earn money in another occupation.³

Jason’s Story: Accidents Happen

Age: 35 • Occupation: orthopedic surgeon • Married, two children

Finding work in a new occupation with the Own Occupation Rider

Jason injured his right hand in an accident and was unable to return to his job as an orthopedic surgeon because he couldn’t perform surgery. Due to his medical training, he was able to return to work as a family medicine physician. Jason was considered totally disabled in his regular occupation as an orthopedic surgeon — even though he earns an income from another occupation as a family medicine physician — because of the own occupation definition of total disability included in his Platinum Advantage policy. Because of this, he receives the policy’s full basic monthly benefit, in addition to the income he receives in his new position.

³ "Regular Occupation" means any employment, business, trade or profession and the Substantial and Material Acts of the occupation you are regularly performing when the Disability begins. Regular Occupation is not necessarily limited to the specific job you are performing when the Disability begins.

Noncancelable Policy Rider

With this rider, your premiums and policy provisions will be locked in for the duration of your policy. We won't cancel your policy, raise your premium rates or reduce your coverage as long as you pay the premiums on time.

Indexed Cost of Living Benefit Rider

To help your benefits keep pace with inflation, the Indexed Cost of Living Benefit Rider will increase your benefits by up to 3 or 6% annually based on changes in the Consumer Price Index, while you remain disabled.

Catastrophic Disability Benefit Rider

In the event you were to experience a presumptive disability (e.g., loss of speech, sight, or use of two limbs), the Catastrophic Disability Benefit Rider would pay you a monthly benefit, in addition to the total disability benefit, which can help offset the cost of additional expenses or care.

Student Loan Rider

If you become totally disabled, The Standard will pay you a student loan benefit in the amount you paid under your student loan agreement, up to a stated maximum amount. This can help ensure you won't fall behind in your student loan payments should you experience a totally disabling injury or sickness.⁴
