

GROUP SHORT TERM DISABILITY INSURANCE

Protect your income if you're out on leave.

Your health insurance helps pay medical bills. Short Term Disability insurance pays you. It can replace part of your paycheck if you can't work due to a qualifying disability.

Disability insurance helps protect your income if you're unable to work.

Short Term Disability insurance can help pay benefits if you become disabled and can't work for a short amount of time.

This coverage replaces a portion of your income when you can't work because of a qualifying disability, including injury, physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder

You may receive weekly benefits that replace a specified percentage of your eligible earnings. Benefits begin after the short benefit waiting period explained below.

You may also receive help returning to work if you need accommodations.

Even if you're healthy now, it's important to protect yourself and the people who count on your income. If you can't work, Short Term Disability insurance may help you pay for ongoing expenses:

What Your Benefit Provides

This is the benefit you'd receive if you suffer a qualifying disability. Eligible earnings are your weekly insured predisability earnings, as defined by the group policy. Your benefit amount will be reduced by deductible income; see the Important Details section for a list of deductible income sources.

60 percent of the first $1,667 of your eligible earnings, up to a maximum benefit of $1,000 per week.

Plan minimum is 10% of your STD benefit before reduction by Deductible Income.

Benefit Waiting Period

If you suffer a qualifying disability, your benefit waiting period is the length of time you must be continuously disabled before you can begin receiving your weekly benefit.

Option 1: 14 days for accidental injury
14 days for physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder

Option 2: 29 days for accidental injury
29 days for physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder

Extended Benefit Waiting Period

This applies if you do not apply for this coverage within 60 days of becoming eligible, were eligible for coverage under a prior plan for more than 60 days but were not insured, or if your insurance ends because you failed to pay your premium and is later reinstated.

60 days for any qualifying disability caused by physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder occurring during the first 12 months of coverage. Members who enroll in Option 1 after being enrolled in Option 2 for at least 12 months will retain their 29-day waiting period for the 12-month period beginning on the effective date of the change. Thereafter for any period of continuous coverage only the 14-day Benefit Waiting Period under Option 1 will apply.

How Long Your Benefits Last

This is the maximum length of time you could be eligible to receive a weekly disability benefit.

Option 1: 76 days
Option 2: 61 days

See the Important Details section for more information, including requirements, exclusions, limitations and definitions.

Additional Features

Return to Work Incentive

Your disability benefit will not be reduced by any work earnings you receive until the combined amount of the benefit, earnings and other sources of income exceeds 100 percent of your pre-disability earnings.

Help With Returning To Work

If a worksite modification would enable you to return to work, we can help your employer make approved modifications by covering some or all of the cost.

Not being able to work also means not being able to earn a paycheck.

As you consider Short Term Disability insurance, think about the expenses you would need to cover if you became disabled:

- Housing costs
- Utilities
- Groceries
- Medical bills
- Car insurance
- Child care costs

How Much Your Coverage Costs

Because this insurance is offered through The University of Alabama System, you'll have access to competitive group rates that may be more affordable than those available through individual insurance. You'll also have the convenience of having your premium deducted directly from your paycheck.

How much your premium costs depends on a number of factors, such as your age and your benefit amount.

To estimate your insurance needs, you'll need to consider your unique circumstances. Use our online calculator at standard.com/disability/needs.

Use this formula to calculate your premium payment:

$$\text{_____} \times 0.60 \times \text{_____} \times 0.00 \div 10 = \text{_____}$$

Enter your weekly earnings (cannot be more than $1,667).

Enter your rate from the rate table. Rate per $10 of weekly benefit.

This amount is an estimate of how much you'd pay each month.

Option 1 (14/14)

Option 2 (29/29)

Your Age (as of January 1)	Rate per $10 of weekly benefit	Your Age (as of January 1)	Rate per $10 of weekly benefit
<54	$0.180	<54	$0.130
55-59	$0.240	55-59	$0.170
60-64	$0.290	60-64	$0.210
65-69	$0.310	65-69	$0.230
70-74	$0.350	70-74	$0.260
75+	$0.390	75+	$0.280

Important Details

Here's where you'll find the nitty-gritty details about the plan.

Eligibility Requirements

A minimum number of eligible employees must apply and qualify for the plan before the coverage can become effective. If this requirement is not met, this plan will not become effective.

To be eligible for coverage, you must be:

- A regular full-time employee of The University of Alabama actively working at least 38.75 hours per week
- A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada

Temporary and seasonal employees, full-time members of the armed forces, leased employees and independent contractors are not eligible.

Employee Coverage Effective Date

To become insured, you must:

- Meet the eligibility requirements listed above
- Serve an eligibility waiting period*
- Apply for coverage and agree to pay premium
- Be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance

*If you are already a member on the date the group policy is effective, you are eligible on that date. If you become a member after the group policy effective date, you are eligible on the first day of the month that follows your date of hire.

If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

Definition of Disability

You will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, and
- You suffer a loss of at least 20 percent in your predisability earnings when working in your own occupation.

You are not considered disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

Exclusions

Subject to state variations, you are not covered for a disability caused or contributed to by any of the following:

- Your committing or attempting to commit an assault or felony, or your active participation in a violent disorder or riot
- An intentionally self-inflicted injury, while sane or insane
- War or any act of war (declared or undeclared, and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature)
- The loss of your professional or occupational license or certification
- An activity arising out of or in the course of any employment for wage or profit

Limitations

Short Term Disability benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty, as determined by The Standard
- Not participating in good faith in a plan, program or course of medical treatment or vocational training or education approved by The Standard, unless your disability prevents you from participating
- Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
- Able to work and earn at least 20 percent of your predisability earnings in your own occupation but you elect not to
- Receiving sick-leave pay from your employer
- Eligible to receive benefits for your disability under a workers' compensation law or similar law

When Your Benefits End

Your Short Term Disability benefits end automatically on the date any of the following occur:

- You are no longer disabled
- Your maximum benefit period ends
- Long term disability benefits become payable to you under a long term disability plan
- Benefits become payable under any other disability insurance plan which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery
- You fail to provide proof of continued disability and entitlement to benefits
- You pass away

Deductible Income

Your benefits will be reduced if you have deductible income, which is income you receive or are eligible to receive while receiving Short Term Disability benefits. Deductible income includes:

- Personal leave pay, severance pay, or other forms of salary continuation, including donated amounts, (but not vacation pay) paid to you by your employer
- Amounts under unemployment compensation law
- Amounts because of your disability from any other group insurance
- Any disability or retirement benefits received or you are eligible to receive from your employer's retirement plan
- Amounts under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you work as much as your disability allows
- Earnings or compensation included in your predisability earnings which you receive or are eligible to receive while Short Term Disability benefits are payable
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgment, settlement or other method
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

When Your Insurance Ends

Your insurance ends automatically when any of the following occur:

- The date the last period ends for which a premium was paid
- The date your employment terminates
- The date the group policy (or your employer's coverage under the group policy) terminates
- The date you cease to meet the eligibility requirements (insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances)

Group Insurance Certificate

If coverage becomes effective, and you become insured, you will receive a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage, including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy. The information presented in this summary does not modify the group policy, certificate or the insurance coverage in any way.
